Press Release

Who is Edite Domingos?

Edite Domingos, a Munich-born singer, brings her Angolan heritage to Afro Beats, blending European pop with powerful rhythms that resonate across cultures. Known for her dynamic stage presence, Edite creates a unique connection with her audience, leaving every crowd inspired and energized.

Performing with a live band, alongside her dancers, or as a solo act, Edite's shows radiate joy, authenticity, and contagious energy, inviting everyone to be part of the experience. Her self-written songs, often focusing on women's empowerment, convey messages of strength and resilience, yet her music speaks to everyone, transcending barriers and uniting diverse listeners.

Her musical journey has earned her recognition worldwide, with appearances on TFM Senegal, München TV, Radio Despertar Angola, and more. Following the release of her single „Why Don't You Love Me,“ Edite is working on new projects, ready to continue inspiring audiences everywhere with her powerful music and positive energy.

In addition to her music, Edite is dedicated to social causes. As the brand ambassador for “Freiwillige Messe Munich” in 2020 and 2021, she promoted volunteerism and has offered free hip-hop dance lessons to girls from refugee or disadvantaged backgrounds. “In my years of social work, I've learned that building self-confidence is one of the greatest challenges for young women,” Edite shares. Her commitment to empowering young people continues to inspire and uplift communities beyond the stage.
